

A Message from Marina

May 2019

Dear Neighbor,

Happy May! Summer is right around the corner!

This e-newsletter is full of fun things to do in our county for everyone. We just opened the South Shore Terrace Beer Garden and there are many new menu items to check out!

Soon, Chill on the Hill will start and the beer garden in Humboldt Park will open. I was honored to present a Milwaukee County citation congratulating the Bay View Historical Society on their 40 year anniversary last week.

I can't wait to see you at the Farmers' Market soon and GO BUCKS!

South Shore Terrace Beer Garden Grand Opening

Thank you to everyone who came out to celebrate the seasonal opening of the South Shore Terrace Beer Garden. It was great to see you there.

In spite of the snow, hundreds of people lined up to enjoy free beer and welcome spring with us and the Parks Department.

I hope that you and your family are able to enjoy the improvements to South Shore this spring and summer and let me know your thoughts on how we can make it even better. Prost!

Pulaski Park Progress

The Milwaukee Metropolitan Sewerage District continues its work to revitalize the Kinnickinnic River at Pulaski Park. The project will remove the concrete river bank and widen the channel.

A new pedestrian bridge was lowered into place April 30. The 153-foot steel bridge spans the river to connect pedestrians and cyclists to the historical pavilion and new park facilities that will include a playground, basketball, and futsal court.

Japanese Zen Garden Show at the Domes

April 20-May 25

Free with General Domes Admission

Don't forget to check out the Zen Garden Show at the Domes! Relax and unwind as you stroll through our collection of Zen gardens. The small, calming gardens bring out the essence of nature and inspire meditation and quiet reflection.

Among the carefully arranged rocks, water features and Japanese sculptures is a collection of Japanese plants, kokedama and cherry blossom trees. The show is open daily, April 20 – May 25, and is included with general admission to The Domes.

The Vine Set to Open at Humboldt Park Beer Garden

We got some great news this month from the Humboldt Park Beer Garden and the Triciclo Perú restaurant. On May 23rd, The Vine will begin offering neighbors a new menu featuring Peruvian empanadas (vegan too!), wine, and revamped digs at the Humboldt Park Beer Garden.

Just in time for Memorial Day Weekend, too! You can read more here about the new Humboldt Park Beer Garden.

I cannot wait to see you there.

Supervisors, Workers Commemorate 133rd Anniversary of the Bay View Massacre 5/5

Supervisors Dimitrijevic, Haas, and Shea with other workers and representatives attended the reenactment of the Bay View Massacre, a battle that resulted in lives lost—and a win in the fight for the 8-hour workday.

MCTS Bus Fleet Shows Support for Milwaukee Bucks

The Milwaukee County Transit System (MCTS) is showing its support for the Milwaukee Bucks as they compete in the NBA Playoffs. Beginning Friday, April 12, digital screens on all 400 buses in the MCTS fleet have displayed special messages, “Fear the Deer!” and “Go Bucks!”

Fans heading downtown to see the Bucks in action, or planning to stop by watch parties and special festivities, can count on MCTS for convenient, safe and affordable transportation. Routes 19, 33 and 80 all make stops near Fiserv Forum and the neighboring plaza. The free-to-download Ride MCTS app lets fans track their bus.
